Presented by Olympic Gold Medalist Dan Jansen

For today's healthcare professionals and front-line workers, who are faced with extraordinary challenges while navigating our pandemic-impacted world, an inspiring story of gained perspective and perseverance over obstacles.

Dan Jansen shares his story of four Olympic Games, from falling only hours after hearing of the death of his sister, to ultimately winning gold in his final race of his final Games.

He takes the lessons learned through a career of ups and downs on the ice and relates them to business and more importantly, to life.

His story comes from the heart and takes the audience through a wide range of emotions, culminating in a memorable victory that becomes less about sports and more about life.
